Note. (i) The President and the Vice-President, P. U. S.C., shall be from two different areas. The President will be in addition to the representation in (e) above.

- (ii) No two members of the Executive Board shall belong to the same college.
- (iii) Meetings of the Executive Board shall be convened by the Secretary, with the permission of the President, as often as may be necessary. Ordinarily, seven days' notice shall be given for such meetings, but in emergent cases the President may direct the Secretary to call a meeting at a shorter notice, if necessary.
- (iv) Five members shall form a quorum at all meetings of the Executive Board.

3. The following Regulation 4-A has been added in the Chapter relating to 'Appointment and Conditions of Service etc.' at page 92 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1969 :—

4-A. When making an appointment, one or more persons, but not more than three, may be placed on the waiting list so that, if the person appointed does not join, the person next on the waiting list could be offered the post. The waiting list shall, however, be operative for a period of six months from the date of Syndicate meeting in which it is approved.

4. Regulation 25 at page 96 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1969, shall read as under :—

25.1. The Senate may, in its discretion for any special reason, grant an employee who has completed at least five years' service in this University extraordinary leave of absence, but such leave shall be without pay and shall not ordinarily exceed six months.

Provided that this leave may be granted :

- (a) up to a maximum of 16 months to an employee who has taken up employment elsewhere with the permission of the University.
- (b) up to two years to an employee who is permitted to go elsewhere for higher studies, this leave may be extended up to three years in an exceptional case.

25.2. The Senate may, on recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor and Syndicate in exceptional cases of distinguished teachers who receive recognition of their research and who are invited by a foreign university as Visiting teacher or on research assignments, grant extraordinary leave which shall be without pay and which shall not exceed a total period of five years during an employee's service.

5. Regulation 3 relating to 'Examination Fees' at pages 120—21 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1969, shall read as under :—

3. A candidate who—

- (i) fails to present himself for examination; or
- (ii) has appeared in an examination provisionally and is subsequently declared ineligible by the Registrar or an officer authorised by him, according to the rules and regulations, shall not be entitled to refund of the fee or to have it kept in deposit for a subsequent examination, provided that—

- (i) if a candidate dies before the commencement of examination or during the course of examination without having appeared any paper, the fee shall be refundable to his legal heirs;
- (ii) if a candidate becomes ineligible to appear in an examination, after sending up his admission form and fee, he shall forfeit to the University 25% of his admission fee.
- (iii) if a private candidate is declared ineligible to appear in an examination, the Registration fee, paid by him, may be refunded along with the admission fee;
- (iv) If a woman candidate is unable to appear in the examination for maternity reasons her fee may be held over for the next examination, provided that the application for credit the fee for the next examination must be made to the Registrar within three months of the termination of the examination concerned and shall be supported by a medical certificate if so required by the Vice-Chancellor;
- (v) If a private candidate, serving as a member of the regular land, air or naval forces, is unable to appear in an examination owing to military exigencies, he shall be entitled to the refund of fee, on production of a certificate to this effect from the Officer Commanding of his unit at any time before the commencement of the examination.

The application for refund of the fee should be made within three months of the date when refund becomes due.

6. Regulation 2(A) has been added to the regulations relating to 'Admission to Examinations' at page 121 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1969, which shall read as under :—

2. (A). An examinations in which a candidate has to appear in various Parts within a specified period of passing the lower Part, if a candidate is unable to do so within that period, he may be allowed to re-appear in the entire examination, provided he surrenders the certificates for the Parts which he has already passed.

7. Regulations 3(C), 10 and 11 relating to 'Admission to Examinations' at pages 122 and 124-125 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1969, shall read as under :—

3(C). Where the chances of a candidate to clear an examination are limited, and he is disqualified from appearing in it for a fixed period, he may be allowed by the Vice-Chancellor one more chance to appear in the examination after the period of disqualification, in lieu of the chance or chances missed by him during the period of disqualification.

Provided that the candidate had no normal chance available to him, after the period of disqualification, out of the limited chances, and that the extra chance shall only be immediately next to the last admissible chance.

10. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other regulation, the Syndicate, in order to avoid hardship to a candidate, shall have power to relax the regulation regarding change of subjects for any examination, or other similar regulation, where the mistake is primarily of the Head of the institution or the Registrar in case of a mistake on the part of the University office. Provided that these powers shall not include relaxation of the minimum qualifications laid down for admission to the examination.

11. A candidate appearing privately for any examination may apply for change in the subject or subjects or any other entry in his application form provided that—

- (a) the request is permissible under the regulations;
- (b) the application accompanied by a fee of Rs. 5 is received in the University office not later than the dates specified below:—

(i) For Matriculation and Higher Secondary examinations.	By January, 31 of the year of examination and 15 days before the commencement of supplementary examinations.
(ii) For other Matriculation and Higher Secondary examinations.	One month before the commencement of the annual examinations; and 15 days before the commencement of supplementary examinations.

8. The following clauses (G) and (H) have been added to Regulation 3 relating to 'Admission to Examinations' at page 122 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1969:—

(G). For the examinations where the number of chance to clear the first examination are limited and if there are Semesters in each examination, the first examination shall mean the first Semester so that after a candidate has cleared the first Semester of the first examination, there shall be no restriction on the number of chances at the second Semester and subsequent examination.

(H). A candidate who has been placed in compartment and who has been given the option to appear in all the subjects instead of only the compartment subject shall not be allowed to change his option and to appear later in the compartment subject only in case he fails to qualify in all the subjects.

9. Regulation 10(d) relating to 'Award of Scholarships under Section 31(n) of the Panjab University Act' at page 130 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1969, shall read as under:—

10.(d). A scholarship awarded on the results of Pre-Medical or Pre-Engineering or B.A./B.Sc. Part I examination to a student who joins *B.A./B.Sc. Honours School course shall be tenable for 3 years, subject to the holder passing in all the examinations up to the final stage.

*To take effect from the admissions of 1967.

10. The following new Regulation has been added at page 135 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1969:—

Regulation 'Granting extension/condoning delay in submission of thesis/dissertation for all the examinations except Ph.D.'

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other regulation, the Registrar/Vice-Chancellor shall have power to grant extension/condone delay, as under, in receipt of a thesis/dissertation for an examination, excepting Ph. D., subject to the limitation laid down in the regulations pertaining to the examination concerned.

- (i) Grant of extension/condonation of delay up to one month . . . . By the Registrar.
- (ii) Grant of extension/condonation of delay beyond one month . . . . By the Vice-Chancellor.

11. Regulation 1 relating to 'Affiliated Colleges' at page 140 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1969, shall read as under:—

1. The application for affiliation shall be made in the case of a Government college by the Director of Public Instruction or the Head of the Education Department, and in the case of a non-Government institution by the Chairman or any other authority appointed for the purpose by the Governing Body of the college.

Application for grant of affiliation to new colleges must reach the Registrar by November 1 of the year preceding the one in which it is proposed to start the college. Applications for grant of extension of affiliation must reach the Registrar by December 1 in case of science subjects and December 31 in the case of Arts subjects of the year preceding the one in which it is proposed to start classes in the subjects concerned. Provided that Syndicate may, for special reasons, entertain, even after the last date, an application for grant of extension of affiliation in a subject or subjects other than science subjects. Every college must comply with all the conditions, imposed for grant of affiliation, within the stipulated period. No application for grant of extension of affiliation will be entertained unless all the conditions imposed for affiliation already granted have been complied with in toto.

If a college fails to start classes during the academic year for which permission has been given, the affiliation or extension of affiliation in the subject or subjects concerned shall stand cancelled.

If any college does not provide instruction in a subject or subjects in which affiliation had been granted, for three years continuously, the affiliation in such subject or subjects shall stand cancelled.

12. Regulations 8, 10 and 12 relating to 'Affiliated Colleges' at pages 148-149 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1969, shall read as under:—

8. The Service record of Principal/Teacher and the Annual Confidential Report on his work and conduct shall be maintained regularly. The person concerned shall be informed in writing in case there is an adverse report.

10. The Governing Body of a non-Government college shall include on its management, in addition to the Principal, who shall be an ex-officio member, two representatives of teachers elected by teachers of not less than five years standing provided that (i) the two representatives so elected shall be of not less than ten years standing and (ii) if two teachers of ten years standing are not available on the staff of the college, one representative shall be elected of not less than 5 years standing. Provided further that if no teacher even of 5 years standing is available in a college a teacher who happens to be the senior most on the staff shall be invited by the Governing Body to serve on it. The term of office of such representative shall be the same as for the remaining members of the Governing body, provided that in no case it shall exceed three years. Provided further that a casual vacancy shall be filled by election within three months of the vacancy occurring and the member so elected shall continue for the rest of the term of the outgoing member.

12. The Governing Body shall not determine the engagement of an employee whether summarily or otherwise without informing him in writing of the grounds on which they propose to take action and without giving him a reasonable opportunity of stating his case in writing; and before coming to a final decision, shall duly consider the teacher's statement and if he so desires shall give him a personal hearing.

Provided that if a teacher is dismissed or removed from service, the Principal shall send an intimation to the University, giving reasons, etc., within two weeks.

13. The following Regulation 8-A has been added to the regulations relating to Affiliated Colleges at page 148 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1969 :—

8-A. Every affiliated non-Government college shall prepare a seniority list on the basis of persons in position as on 11-1-1966 and supply the same to the University. Such lists shall be brought up to date every year as on April 1.

14. Rule 17(1) of Appendix II governing 'Standard Provident Fund Rules for College Teachers' at page 160 of the Calendar, Vol. I, 1969, shall read as under :—

17. (1) The Committee shall have the power, with the approval of the Registrar or such officer appointed by him in his behalf, to allow temporary advances not exceeding three months pay to any subscriber from the amount of deposit at his credit in the fund, provided that he has no other resources at his disposal, for the following purposes :

- (a) To pay expenses incurred in connection with the illness of himself or a member of his family.
- (b) To pay expenses in connection with marriages, funerals or ceremonies which, by the religion of the subscriber, it is incumbent upon him to perform and in connection with which it is obligatory that expenditure should be incurred.
- (c) To buy foodgrains for his/her family at harvest time.
- (d) For the construction of a new house.
- (e) To meet the expenses of higher education of his/her children.
- (f) For purchase of a conveyance.

15. Clause (g) Regulation 6 relating to 'Private candidates' at page 181 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1969, shall read as under :—

(g) Candidates who have been residents of the Punjab, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh and Union Territory of Chandigarh for nine months preceding the examination. Provided such candidates (Blind persons excepted) have passed at least two years previously the 8th class examination in the compulsory subjects of English, Mathematics and any one of the regional languages, from any recognised school of a State in India, or any other examination recognised by the Vice-Chancellor as equivalent thereto.

No one who has been on the rolls of a school at any time during the academic year preceding a University examination, shall appear at the examination as a private candidate without recommendation from the Headmaster of the school in which he was a student.

Provided that sons and dependants of military personnel eligible to appear as private candidates, shall not be required to fulfil the condition of residence required in the first paragraph of this clause.

16. The following Regulation 3 relating to 'Appointment of Wardens of Hostels' has been added at page 188 of the Calendar, Volume I, 1969 :—

3.1. The Vice-Chancellor shall have authority to appoint part-time or whole-time Wardens for the various Hostels of the University.

3.2. No one above the rank of a Reader shall be appointed a part-time Warden.

3.3. The term of appointment of a part-time Warden shall be for one year in the first instance. He may, however, be re-appointed, if his work is found to be satisfactory, for one year at a time, subject to a maximum term of five years.

TRANSITORY REGULATION

A candidate who has passed F.E.L. (2-year Degree Course) examination may be allowed to join the Second year class of the 3-year LL.B. Course.

29. Regulation 6 for 'Examinations for Diplomas and Literary Titles in Oriental Classical Languages' at pages 355-356 of the Calendar, Volume II, 1969, shall read as under :—

6. The minimum number of marks required to pass shall be as under :

- (a) Proficiency and High Proficiency examinations : 33 per cent in each paper.
- (b) Honours examination : 33 per cent in each paper and 40 per cent in the aggregate. Provided that a candidate who obtains a minimum of 50 per cent marks in the aggregate either in Part I or Part II of the Shastri examination, shall be declared to have passed the examination, even if he fails in one or more papers of Part I or Part II examination.

Provided further that a candidate who fails in one or more papers and/or in the aggregate by not more than one per cent of the total aggregate marks, shall be given these marks to make up the deficiency, and shall be declared to have passed the examination.

In the Shastri examination the grace marks shall be given separately, in Part I and Part II examination.

Provided further that if a candidate in the Honours examination has secured at least second class marks in the aggregate excluding the marks obtained in the additional optional paper, he shall be declared to have passed the examination though failing in one or more papers.

In the Proficiency, High Proficiency and Honours examinations, a candidate who has obtained 40 per cent of the aggregate number of marks, but has failed in one paper only obtaining not less than 25 per cent marks in that paper shall be permitted to appear at the supplementary examination to be held in October of the same year and the next annual examination in that paper only on payment of the same fee on each occasion as for the whole examination, and if he passes in that paper in either of those examinations, he shall be deemed to have passed the Proficiency/High Proficiency/Honours examination.

Provided further that the Syndicate may extend this period, in the case of member of the regular armed forces, who is unable owing to defence exigencies, to avail himself of a chance within this time.

A candidate for Shastri Part I examination who is placed under compartment may be allowed to join Part II class and also appear simultaneously in Part I and Part II examinations. If he fails to clear the Part I examination within the period allowed by regulations, his result of Part II examination will be cancelled.

A candidate for Shastri Part II examination who is placed under compartment may be allowed to join Acharya Part I class and also to appear simultaneously in Shastri Part II and Acharya Part I examinations. If he fails to clear the Part II examination within the period allowed by regulations, his result of Acharya Part I examination will be cancelled.
